WEDNESDAY, JULY 29, 1903.

Everybody is invited to come to Anderson next week and enjoy the Gala Week exercises.

The lynchings for the first half of 1903 number 38, of which some have occurred in the South.

The north is now realizing that the lynch problem is not a Southern problem, but a national one. May the enlightenment go on.

Ex-Sec. Gage is quoted as saying that our currency system doesn't go far enough. Most of us have found at times that our currency doesn't.

Anderson will throw her doors wide open next week and extend a cordial welcome to every person who desires to visit us and participate in her Gala Week festivities.

The South American revolutions are taking a summer vacation it seems. The regular season will open again, it is believed, soon after Uncle Sam pays the canal money to Colombia.

The suggestion that the second place on the next Republican national ticket should be awarded to a negro should not be taken so seriously. Mr. Roosevelt won't carry his fad that far.

Everything at the Postoffice Department, down to the flea on the tail of the janitor's dog, has gone to sleep. There is something very soporific in the political atmosphere at Washington.

A southern statesman claims, with some degree of truth, that the South won't let the negro vote but permits him to work for his living, while the North permits him to vote, but won't let him work.

Mobs in New York, New Jersey, Indiana and Illinois have tried to lynch negroes during the past week or two, and in the latter State succeeded in their work. It is getting quite common up that way.

Senator Bacon, of Georgia, says plainly that the desire of the Democratic party is merely to "remove a few bricks from the top of the tariff wall" so that the people may have some chance against the trusts.

Governor Peabody, of Colorado, has decided to appoint one of his daughters as Colonel of his staff. It isn't so strange as you might think to see American women holding high military rank. Most wives in this country are commanders in chief.

The movement to combine the populists, bimetalists, socialists and other elements into a national political organization promises to receive a new impetus at the conference being held in Denver, Col., this week. There are a few men masquerading as Democrats who should go into such an organization.

Kansas farmers are so rushed that they refuse to allow their harvest hands to knock off work Sundays, but every Sunday after sundown, says the Atlanta Constitution, they allow the worker who has the most sheaves to his credit to hold a spoon soiree in the parlor with the charming daughter of the house.

The State Institute for farmers will meet at Clemson College on August 10. The Intelligencer wishes again to say that an excellent opportunity will be afforded to farmers, at little expense, to learn a great deal and enjoy themselves at the same time, and we hope Anderson County will be represented there.

W. J. Bryan's paper, The Commoner, asks what Grover Cleveland has done since 1896 to make him popular. The Mason (Ga.) Telegraph very truly answers: "Well, for one thing, he has refrained from making a fool of himself. He could well afford to be content with his laurels, and he has shown a dignified absence of that desire to thrust himself upon the public so visible in certain quarters."

The good roads movement which is sweeping the State means a great deal. It means that after sleeping over their rights for many years, and regretting that a similar movement was not started right after the war between the States, the people have determined to start now and build up the dirt roads of the various counties to a state of perfection which will enable the farmers to haul larger loads at smaller cost, with a saving of time in transit. It is a movement that every citizen should be interested in, and should lend a helping hand.

It was estimated some two weeks ago that up to that time more than a thousand persons had met violent deaths in the United States since Jan. 1, and hundreds have been added to the list since then. Railroad wrecks, floods, cloudbursts, forest fires, mine explosions, elevator accidents, murders and lynchings have followed each other in rapid and terrible procession, until it would seem that some evil influences were at work to make 1903 memorable for its bloody record.

A Card.

The undersigned in leaving Anderson wants to acknowledge the courtesies of the press and of his friends in furthering a special mission in behalf of one of the State institutions of learning and training.

He is especially indebted to Auditor Boleman for list of names. He is impressed with the prosperity of Anderson, Town and County. He misses, however, the kindly faces and well remembered forms of many of his friends, among them those of Capt. J. W. Daniels and Col. J. B. Patrick. He is pleased to find the gallant old Confederate veteran, Col. John Brown, still erect, active and sympathetic. May he live long to remind us of the brave days of old, when our gray was passing through the fire, all lost save honor.

With best wishes for Anderson and her enterprising and vigorous people, he passes on to conclude his work.

Jno. P. Thomas.

Rock Mills News.

The annual religious protracted services will commence at Roberts Church next Friday morning and continue through the following Monday. The pastor, Rev. T. C. Ligon, will be assisted in the services by the Rev. Mr. Law, D. D., of Walhalla.

The patrons of the Providence school met last Saturday evening and elected Miss Selma Shirley to teach the next ensuing term to begin about the 1st of November next. We think the patrons made a wise selection, as Miss Shirley is in every way qualified, and an up-to-date teacher.

The patrons of the Shiloh school are requested to meet there next Friday in the interest of their school district. Mr. Cromer, of Fork Township, will teach a summer school at Ridge Spring commencing next Monday. We welcome Mr. Cromer to our Township and wish him success.

There was an altercation here a few days ago between "Ol' Chambliss and Hattieson, in which the latter was out in several places with pocket knife in the hands of the former. No arrests were made.

There was a crowd of evil-minded young men who went to the house of Miss Flora Keaton, last week, and cut up a fine time. Campbell a few nights ago and utterly destroyed it by cutting and slashing hither and thither. We understand that he compromised with them by them paying ten dollars. We suspect if they had been brought before our Judge, that he would have given each of them thirty days in chain gang for such a mean offense.

Joe Chastain, who lives in the Hollister section, was thrown from his buggy last Saturday evening and killed. He had been to Anderson that day and was returning home and had got within one mile of his home when his horse took fright and ran away, throwing him again and a tree with the above results. A colored man was in the buggy with him at the time. He leaves a wife and several children. I think there was an inquest held, but have not heard verdict of the jury. It has been two weeks since we had rain, and crops are beginning to suffer.

July 27.

Brushy Creek Items.

We are needing rain badly. It has been about three weeks since it has rained.

Notwithstanding the dry weather, the crops are looking fine in this section. Watermelons are ripening and are being marketed by some of our most progressive farmers.

O. P. Smith has gone to Central, S. C., where he finds employment for a time.

T. L. Hicks went to Greenville today for two weeks' stay in the office of Auditor Hicks.

There was a lawn party at J. A. Woodson's last Friday evening in honor of Miss Beatie Stone, who is visiting at Mr. Woodson's. The party was largely attended by the youngsters.

Rev. D. I. Spearman will begin a series of meetings at Siloam next Sunday night. We hope for him a successful battle against sin and Satan.

Mrs. Susan Childers, widow of the late John B. Childers, died at the home of J. E. Dilworth on Saturday morning. The funeral was conducted at the home of J. E. Dilworth by Rev. D. I. Spearman, after which the remains were interred at the Childers family burying-ground. The funeral was attended by a host of friends and relatives. The deceased was 81 years of age, and had been a consistent member of the Methodist Church at Bethesda for a number of years. Those who survive are Samuel D. Childers, B. Childers, E. B. Childers, C. P. Childers and Mrs. Mary Dilworth, and a number of grandchildren.

Gracie, the little four-year-old daughter of T. J. Bridges, had the misfortune of being severely burned last Thursday afternoon. Her mother had just emptied a pot of boiling water into a bucket, when by accident the little one tottered and fell into the hot water, severely burning her legs. She has been the pain heroic and is now much better.

Townville News.

Misses Nora and Lollie Morgan are visiting friends and relatives at Barnes. Mrs. C. E. Fant and little daughters, Bertha and Ethel, of Johns, Ala., are spending awhile with her father, Jesse Cantel, here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Kay, of Belton, are visiting the latter's father, W. F. M. Fant.

Horace Towers, of Atlanta, Ga., is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. J. P. Ledbetter.

H. W. Spears is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. B. Felton, at Honea Path.

Dr. S. G. Bruce and family, of Anderson, are spending awhile with his mother, Mrs. E. Bruce.

Miss Dicy Wright, of Rock Mills, who has been spending awhile with her cousin, Miss Oveline Fant, has returned home.

J. C. Spence and J. M. Fant are in North Carolina on business.

The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian Church closed Sunday and began at the Baptist Church Sunday night.

Portman Dots.

The health of our community is very good at present. The crops are fine considering the late spring.

J. W. Todd is ahead on farming in our vicinity. He has very fine cotton, indeed. He is a hustler, anyway, girls. A very enjoyable event occurred at this place July 15th from 4 o'clock until 11 o'clock p. m. There was a large attendance from Anderson and Pendleton, and also Mr. M. L. Thompson and daughters, from Townville.

T. H. McClure, from Anderson, visited his sister near here.

Mrs. J. C. Martin is visiting her brothers at Piercetown.

W. H. McLea, and little daughter, Sylvester, and son visited in the Roberts section 22nd inst.

Miss Lillie Stephenson and brothers, Thomas and Floyd, are visiting their grandmother's family, Mrs. S. E. Whitaker, for a few days. Townville would be at a loss without such young people. Come again.

Mr. Sloan Whitaker received a telegram some few weeks ago from Rock Hill, offering him a paying position of $64.40 a month. He has gladly accepted. We miss him very much, but hope our loss will be very much pleased. He doesn't feel lost at all, as there are many familiar faces there. If he wishes to return we will be glad to have him.

A young lady near here robbed the bees. The gum was laden with the beautiful and delicious honey. She succeeded in getting the honey o. k. But we would like for you to know the result. The result was that the bees came in and carried the honey back to the gum. She says she will not be "outed" by bees. She will try it again. Hurrah for Miss Corrie! for she will not be "outed" by such ill-natured little creatures as they.

Mohawk Items.

"Oh, so dry and hot!" is the cry of all one meets.

Farmers are hurrying to get through work, so as to be ready for picnics.

Mrs. Charles Watson, of Deans, and little cousin, Pat Burdine, of Anderson, were in our midst Wednesday, visiting the former's mother, Mrs. R. B. A. Robinson.

Mrs. Minerva Stivender, of Leesburg, Fla., is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. A. Drake.

There will be a picnic at Reeds' Springs Saturday. All of our young people are anticipating a good time as they had last year. The public is cordially invited to attend and bring well-filled dinner baskets.

Miss Ada and Jennie Reed and Hattie Barker, last week, were attending the County Normal at Anderson. They have returned home, much to the delight of their many friends.

Miss Flora Keaton visited her friend, Miss Barker, last week.

News is scarce and work plentiful. "Now don't forget the picnic."

July 25. Blue Eyes.

New Hebron News.

Last Friday afternoon Miss Leila Russell, who has been appointed by The Southern Board of Education to lecture on the subject of school improvements, with her sweet voice and winsome manner highly interested us by bringing before us the necessity of such plans as would not only add to the appearance of school houses and grounds, but would also be an inspiration to the minds of the young. Miss Russell around sufficient interest on the subject as to result in an organization of an association, consisting of several of the ladies, who will make an effort to carry out the proposed plans, expending aid in the work from the gentlemen, of course. We consider the plan a good one, and sincerely hope we may be able to carry it out satisfactorily, so that should Miss Russell be sent out to visit the same schools again she may find that her work is bearing much fruit. Miss Russell is well qualified for this work, and we wish her much success.

"Twas a pleasure to have with us our former teacher, Miss Frances Wideman, who took quite an interest in the work. Much to the regret of her many friends, she was compelled to return to her home at Due West Saturday a. m. on account of the illness of her sister. She was accompanied by Mrs. H. M. Tate and Miss Nettie Tate.

July 25. Juanita.

Piedmont News.

Piedmont is a coming right along. Something like half of the capital stock for a $2,000 bank has been subscribed and the balance is in sight. The stock will be divided into 150 shares of $100 each.

Everybody that can get off has gone to the mountains, and those that have not are talking about it.

Several loads of home-raised melons were offered for sale on the streets here last week. The melons were quite small but the prices were full grown.

Priestly Watson and son, Clarence, of Greenville, visited relatives here Sunday.

Miss Lilly Hammett, of Chick Springs, is visiting the family of W. H. Hammett this week.

Miss Grace Charles, of Greenville, is spending a few days with her grandmother, Mrs. Martha Charles.

If the proprietors of The Intelligencer are going to make in trade" pay for the big two-column "Buck" advertisement last week we will come around Gala Week.

Holland Items.

The Old Folk's Singing at Shiloh last Saturday and Sunday was a great success. They sang the old hymns and carried us back in memory to our childhood days. Mr. John Eskew took charge and his needles to say it was well done. There were many visitors present and all seemed to enjoy the music. We hope to have another one in the future.

Mr. Knox Witherspoon and wife, of Madison, Fla., are visiting their brother, Dr. E. G. Witherspoon, here.

Mrs. Jodie Dobbins, of Royston, Ga., and Miss Ida Holland, of Anderson, have been visiting in this neighborhood.

Mrs. Ola Carley and children have moved back to her farm for the summer.

The consolidated school at Shiloh is much talked of.
